

Eastern Regional Conference

THE COUNCIL OF STATE GOVERNMENTS

Kimberley Causey-Gomez, MSW, is the Commissioner of Human Services for the U.S. Virgin Islands Department of Human Services.

Mrs. Causey-Gomez speaks Wednesday, August 18 at 2 p.m. at the concurrent session entitled “Age-Friendly States: Improving Health and Well-Being for Older Adults.”

Appointed by Albert Bryan, Jr, Governor of the United States of the Virgin Islands, Kimberley Causey-Gomez rejoined the Virgin Islands Department of Human Services (DHS) as the Commissioner of Human Services in October of 2019. She is a Licensed Certified Social Worker with over 30 years of volunteer and specialized professional expertise in human services work. Ms. Causey-Gomez has always had a desire to help clients to reach their highest potential and become self-sufficient in their life’s path. Throughout her Virgin Islands and Stateside career, Ms. Causey-Gomez has served in a variety of leadership roles in non-profit agencies, government, private businesses, and higher education. Ms. Causey-Gomez holds a Bachelor of Social Work with a focus on Family and Child Welfare and Micro-Practice and a Master of Social Work from Virginia Commonwealth University.