

Eastern Regional Conference

THE COUNCIL OF STATE GOVERNMENTS

Mathew Varsava, Director of Policy for the Ontario Minister for Seniors and Accessibility

Mr. Varsava speaks Wednesday, August 18 at 2 p.m. at the concurrent session titled Age-Friendly States: Improving Health and Well-Being for Older Adults

Mathew Varsava is the Director of Policy for the Ontario Minister for Seniors and Accessibility. He has previously served in Communications and Stakeholder engagement roles in the Ontario Public Service.

Before joining public service, Mathew was the Senior Director of Sales, Americas for an IT manufacturer. In this role, he worked with municipal, state/provincial, health care, education, and federal government partners across the western hemisphere. Mathew is particularly interested in how digital tools can intersect with the social and physical infrastructure needs of our aging communities.

Mathew has completed an undergraduate degree in Philosophy and Political Science from Western University, a Project Management Certificate from Humber College, and is currently pursuing a Masters in Business Administration from the University of Illinois.